DEFENDANTS

ORDER STAYING CERTAIN PROCEEDINGS

Local Uniform Civil Rule 16(b)(1)(B) provides, “[a] motion to remand . . . will stay the attorney conference and disclosure requirements and all discovery not relevant to the remand . . . issue and will stay the parties’ obligation to make disclosures pending the court’s ruling on the motion. . . .” L.U. Civ. R. 16(b)(1)(B) (emphasis added). Because the plaintiff has moved to remand this case to state court [9], staying certain proceedings is appropriate. If either party desires to take remand-related discovery, it shall file a notice of intent to do so no later than April 12, 2023. If such discovery is contemplated by any party, the court will hold a prompt telephonic status conference to discuss the appropriateness, parameters, and deadlines for doing so.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the aforementioned proceedings are hereby STAYED, pending a ruling on the motion to remand. The parties shall notify the undersigned magistrate judge within seven (7) days of a decision on the motion to remand.

SO ORDERED this, the 3rd day of April, 2023.
